4. The timber on said property is vastly depreciating due to pine beetles and needs to be immediately harvested to secure what value of said timber is remaining. Said timber has depreciated by one-half of its original value over the past two-to-three years.

5. The sale of the timber cannot be equitably divided or partitioned among the said joint tenants and a sale of the timber would be in the best interest of the parties.

6. The Plaintiff has employed Steve R. Morris, Attorney at Law, as Plaintiff's Attorney, to file this Complaint and to prosecute this action for a sale of the timber located on said property for a division of the proceeds among the parties, for the mutual benefit of all the parties. Further, that said attorney is entitled to a reasonable fee for his services in this proceeding, and that such fee should be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said property. Furthermore, Plaintiff has and will expend certain sums of money throughout this litigation for filing fees, publication costs, guardian-ad-litem fees, etc., for the mutual benefit of all the parties and should be reimbursed for same.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays the Court as follows:

- (a) That the Court will order a sale of the timber located on said property;
- (b) That the Court will order a division of the sales proceeds of such timber sale among the parties according to their respective interests;
- (c) That the Court will award Plaintiff's attorney a reasonable fee for his services in this action and that the Court will award Plaintiff reimbursement of all costs and fees paid related to this action, said attorney's fees, costs and other fees to be paid out of the timber sales proceeds as sought in Count Two of this Complaint; and
- (d) That the Court will enter such other orders, judgments and decrees as may be just and proper.

CIVIL ACTION NO. CV-2006-0103

Specifically Described Lands, etc., et al.,

Filed in Office

Defendants

OCT 30 2007

FIRST AMENDMENT TO ANSWER,
AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES, AND COUNTERCLAIM OF
DEFENDANT JESSE FREEMAN

CHRIS MAY
Clerk of Circuit Court

COMES now JESSE FREEMAN, one of the Defendants in the above-styled cause, and in addition to his previously filed answer (and not in substitution thereof) further shows as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In addition to those Affirmative Defenses previously pled, said Defendant asserts the following Affirmative Defenses:

1. Res judicata, claims preclusion, issue preclusion
2. Statute of limitations, laches, waiver, release
3. Statute of Frauds
4. Payment, Release
5. Fraud
6. Forged deeds and conveyances.

ANSWER

Said Defendant denies all material allegations of said complaint and demands strict proof thereof.

COUNTERCLAIM

Comes now said Defendant and asserts this his Counterclaims against Plaintiff:

ADVERSE POSSESSION

1. Defendant shows that he inherited an undivided fractional interest in and to the real estate the subject of Plaintiff's complaint.

2. Defendant further shows that he has ousted the other co-owners of a portion of said real estate, having occupied said portion of said property as his sole and individual residence and curtilage for a period in excess of twenty (20) years, in an open, hostile and adverse manner; and, accordingly, that he has acquired ownership of said real estate by virtue of such adverse possession.

3. Defendant shows that he has become the sole owner of the aforesaid portion of said real estate by virtue of said adverse possession.

WHEREFORE, Defendant asks that this Honorable Court award to him fee simple title in and to the portion of said real estate which said Defendant has adversely possessed as aforesaid.

ACCOUNTING

4. Defendant shows that he is a joint owner of the real estate the subject of this proceeding. Plaintiff is also a joint owner thereof, said respective interests being set forth in Plaintiff's complaint.

5. Defendant shows that upon information and belief, he believes that Plaintiff has authorized the removal and sale of timber from the said property and has received compensation for such timber.

6. Defendant shows that Plaintiff owns only an undivided fractional interest in said property and the timber located thereon but that she retained for her personal use all of the proceeds from the cutting and sale of said timber.

7. Plaintiff has refused to provide an accounting of the sums received for such timber, although Defendant has requested the same.

8. Plaintiff should be required by this Honorable Court to file with this Court an itemized accounting of all the income so received from the said property and timber, along with any other income received from the said property; and further that she shall be required to account for any and all expenses for which she claims compensation from said timber proceeds; and that she be required to distribute to Defendant and other joint owners their fair share of the net proceeds from said land and timber, as this Honorable Court may order.

WHEREFORE, said Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will make and enter an Order requiring Plaintiff to provide a full accounting of all timber sold and cut from said property, together with any other proceeds from said land; that she be required to account for any expenses for which she claims reimbursement; and that she be required to distribute to said

Defendant and other joint owners their undivided fractional shares of such net proceeds from said land and timber.

CONVERSION

9. Defendant reavers the above and foregoing allegations and further shows as follows:

10. Upon information and belief, said Defendant believes that Plaintiff authorized the removal and sale of timber from the said property and has received compensation for such timber.

11. Said Defendant further believes, upon information and belief, that Plaintiff converted said timber and the sales proceeds there from to her own personal use, with the intent to deprive Defendant and other joint owners of the said timber and proceeds from the sale thereof.

12. Defendant further shows that such conversion was willful, intentional, and malicious.

13. As a proximate consequence of such conversion, Defendant was damaged in that the value of his interest in the said property was diminished by the cutting of the said timber and that he was deprived of the proceeds from the sale of said timber.

WHEREFORE, said Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will make and enter an Order awarding judgment against Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES, AND COUNTERCLAIM OF
DEFENDANT JESSE FREEMAN*Filed in Office

OCT 30 2007

CHRIS MAY
Clerk of Circuit Court

COMES now JESSE FREEMAN, one of the Defendants in the above-styled cause, and in addition to his previously filed answer (and not in substitution thereof) further shows as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In addition to those Affirmative Defenses previously pled, said Defendant asserts the following Affirmative Defenses:

1. Res judicata, claims preclusion, issue preclusion
2. Statute of limitations, laches, waiver, release
3. Statute of Frauds
4. Payment, Release
5. Fraud
6. Forged deeds and conveyances.

ANSWER

Said Defendant denies all material allegations of said complaint and demands strict proof thereof.

COUNTERCLAIM

Comes now said Defendant and asserts this his Counterclaims against Plaintiff:

ADVERSE POSSESSION

1. Defendant shows that he inherited an undivided fractional interest in and to the real estate the subject of Plaintiff's complaint.

2. Defendant further shows that he has ousted the other co-owners of a portion of said real estate, having occupied said portion of said property as his sole and individual residence and curtilage for a period in excess of twenty (20) years, in an open, hostile and adverse manner; and, accordingly, that he has acquired ownership of said real estate by virtue of such adverse possession.

3. Defendant shows that he has become the sole owner of the aforesaid portion of said real estate by virtue of said adverse possession.

WHEREFORE, Defendant asks that this Honorable Court award to him fee simple title in and to the portion of said real estate which said Defendant has adversely possessed as aforesaid.

ACCOUNTING

4. Defendant shows that he is a joint owner of the real estate the subject of this proceeding. Plaintiff is also a joint owner thereof, said respective interests being set forth in Plaintiff's complaint.

5. Defendant shows that upon information and belief, he believes that Plaintiff has authorized the removal and sale of timber from the said property and has received compensation for such timber.

6. Defendant shows that Plaintiff owns only an undivided fractional interest in said property and the timber located thereon but that she retained for her personal use all of the proceeds from the cutting and sale of said timber.

7. Plaintiff has refused to provide an accounting of the sums received for such timber, although Defendant has requested the same.

8. Plaintiff should be required by this Honorable Court to file with this Court an itemized accounting of all the income so received from the said property and timber, along with any other income received from the said property; and further that she shall be required to account for any and all expenses for which she claims compensation from said timber proceeds; and that she be required to distribute to Defendant and other joint owners their fair share of the net proceeds from said land and timber, as this Honorable Court may order.

WHEREFORE, said Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will make and enter an Order requiring Plaintiff to provide a full accounting of all timber sold and cut from said property, together with any other proceeds from said land; that she be required to account for any expenses for which she claims reimbursement; and that she be required to distribute to said

Defendant and other joint owners their undivided fractional shares of such net proceeds from said land and timber.

CONVERSION

9. Defendant reavers the above and foregoing allegations and further shows as follows:

10. Upon information and belief, said Defendant believes that Plaintiff authorized the removal and sale of timber from the said property and has received compensation for such timber.

11. Said Defendant further believes, upon information and belief, that Plaintiff converted said timber and the sales proceeds there from to her own personal use, with the intent to deprive Defendant and other joint owners of the said timber and proceeds from the sale thereof.

12. Defendant further shows that such conversion was willful, intentional, and malicious.

13. As a proximate consequence of such conversion, Defendant was damaged in that the value of his interest in the said property was diminished by the cutting of the said timber and that he was deprived of the proceeds from the sale of said timber.

WHEREFORE, said Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will make and enter an Order awarding judgment against Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages.
